

Lección 40-3 Quizás Worksheet

Act. 4: After studying these vocabulary words you are ready to hear the song!

Youtube link to Quizás: <https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=Nf-WftDDIV8>

As you watch the song with the lyrics written, look for and write down the Spanish Cognates for the following English cognates in the song!

A. Cognatas (escribe en español):

hello	pass	part
equal	confess	in
my	much	loco
separate	reality	desert
explain	march	reason discuss

Act. 5: Translate the following sentences in Spanish to English!

1. Hola Viejo, dime cómo estás.
2. Los años pasan y no hemos vuelto a hablar.
3. No quiere que te pienses que me he olvidado de ti.
4. Yo por mi parte no puede quejar, trabajando como siempre igual.
5. Aunque confieso en mi vida hay mucha soledad.
6. En el fondo tú y yo somos casi igual, y me vuelvo loco solo con pensar.
7. Quizás la vida nos separa cada día más.
8. Quizás la vida nos aleja de la realidad.
9. Quizás tú buscas un desierto y yo busco un mar.
10. Quizás que gracias a la vida hoy te quiero más.
11. Hay tantas cosas que te quiero explicar.
12. Porque uno nunca sabe si mañana esté aquí.
13. A veces hemos ido marcha atrás, y la razón siempre querías llevar.
14. Pero estoy cansado, no quiero discutir.

Act. 6: Answer the following preguntas de la canción:

1. Who is the singer singing to?
2. What has the singer not done for many years?
3. What has the Singer done for many years?
4. What has the Singer felt for much time?

5. What is the Singer like in comparison to the person that he is singing to?
6. What are two things that life has done to both of them?
7. What is the symbol for “you look for the desert and I look for the sea”?
8. What has helped the singer love more the person to whom he speaks?
9. Why does the singer want to explain these things now?
10. What is the singer tired of doing?
11. My example of a time I decided to give my message before it was too late.